DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on 4/29/03 was filed after the mailing date of the application on 10/29/01. The submission is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner.

Claims Status

Claims 1-18 are pending and are rejected as followed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Claims 1-10, 11-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claims 1 and 11 cited "a computer-implemented method" in the pre-amble but fails to recite the term "computer" in the body of the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

4. Claims 1- 10, 13-16, 11-12, 17-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by SEVCIK et al (US 6,330,542).

Art Unit: 3629

5. As for independent claim 1, SEVCIK et al disclosed a computer-implemented method of managing print job costs comprising the steps of:

- (a) provide an electronic print job request, the request having a set of attributes (Figs. 2-8, 13);
- (b) displaying set of attributes (Fig. 4);
- (c) prior to printing the print job, calculating a cost of the electronic print job using the set of attributes (Fig. 4, 5 (50)); and
- (d) displaying the calculated cost (Fig. 2)

As for dep. claim 2, which further limit the printing job cost to include printing, this is taught in Fig. 6, 7.

As for dep. claim 3, which further limit the printing job cost to include estimated consumables cost based on a set of consumable factors such as ink type or printer technology or color option, this is taught in col. 6, lines 45-55, Fig. 6, 7 or especially Fig. 14.

As for dep. claim 4, which further explains the consumable factors to include various cost such as media cost, binding cost, and printer technology cost, this is taught in Figs. 5-7.

As for dep. claim 5, which further explains the job printing cost to include mailing cost, this is taught in col. 9, lines 1-12.

As for dep. claims 6-7, which further limit the cost to include an estimated postage cost based on set of postage determine factors, this is taught in col. 8, line 65 to col. 9, line 12 which discloses regular and special postal regulations and rates or categories and the postage range for each project or each item which normally deals with the type of media, printer technology, format and or binding options.

As for dep. claim 8, which further deals with the step of (e) presenting a menu of printing business rules, i.e. (e1) least expensive, or (e2) highest quality, or (e3) fastest print (best turnaround time) or (e4) limited color, etc. (f) receiving a selection for the business rules, (g) modify the set of attributes to comply with the selected business rule, (h) re-calculating the cost of the printed job, and (i) displaying the re-calculated cost, these are fairly taught in Fig. 9 (90), Fig. 5-7, Fig. 5 (49: change option), Fig. 6-7, col. 9, lines 5-15, 50-67, col. 10, lines 1-20.

As for dep. claims 9-10, which further deals with the further limitation of receiving a selection of an overriding of one or more attributes of the modified set of attributes and further recalculating and displaying, these are fairly taught in col. 9, line 5-15, which discloses that the buyer can change any of these variables after receiving the quote and request another quote based on the new options as indicated by (5) in Figs. 4, 5 and 7. This allows the printing buyer to immediately see the impact of any specification changes on the price of the project.

6. As for Independent claim 11, which has similar limitations as in Independent claim 1 and dep. claim 8, it's rejected for the same reason set forth in dep. claim 8 above.

As for dep. claim 12 (part of 11 above) which further comprising the displaying of the final cost, this is rejected for the same reason set forth in claim 8 above.

7. As for Independent claim 13, which deals with a program storage device readable by a processor, tangibly embodying a program of instructions to perform the steps of Independent claim 1 above, it is rejected over the program storage device readable by a processor, tangibly embodying a program of instructions to perform the steps of SEVCIK et al as shown in the rejection of claim 1 above (see also a brief summary at the abstract: network data processing system commercial printing software).

As for dep. claims 14-16 (part of claim 13 above), they have similar limitations as in claims 8-10 and are rejected for the same reasons set forth in claims 8-10.

8. As for Independent claim 17, which deals with a program storage device readable by a processor, tangibly embodying a program of instructions to perform the steps of Independent claim 11 above, it is rejected over the program storage device readable by a processor, tangibly embodying a program of instructions to perform the steps of SEVCIK et al as shown in the rejection of claim 11 above.

As for dep. claim 18 (part of claim 17 above), they have similar limitations as in dep. claim 12 and are rejected for the same reasons set forth in dep. claim 12.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3629

10. Dependent claims 2-10, 12, 14-16, 18 are rejected (2nd time) under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over SEVCIK et al.

As for dep. claims 2-10, 12, 14-16, 18 which discloses the various well known parameters or variables for automated Internet quoting of commercial printings (including freight cost) which are fairly taught by SEVCIK et al on Figs. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 12-18 as indicated above and the adjustment of these variables (or selection of certain/desired variables to meet certain desired conditions) are considered as optimizing operating conditions or result effective variables and the optimizing of result effective variables is considered as routine experimentation to determine optimum or economically feasible reaction conditions and would have been obvious to the skilled artisan, absent showing evidence of unexpected results. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

No claims are allowed.
